Real Estate Services

The evolving news around the coronavirus here and abroad is impacting the way all of us move through our days, both personally and professionally. At Lepi & Associates, we are following the best practices provided by health organizations, and we are monitoring any changes in recommendations as the days unfold.

We want you to know that the health and well-being of our team and our clients is of the utmost importance to us and is guiding our decisions during this unprecedented time.

Right now, it is business as usual for us, and we are working hard on the projects that clients have entrusted to us. Please know we are always available to you by email, phone or through our website, should you prefer not to have in-person visits.

All businesses – large and small – are going to be feeling the effects of a global pandemic. We are striving to stay in touch with and focus on our key audiences and to minimize disruption to our transactions. We're here to help.
